JOB TITLE: WildSafeBC Community Coordinator

Are you passionate about wildlife in your area?

Do you want to contribute to human-wildlife conflict reduction in a meaningful way?

Are you detail-oriented, do you thrive on diverse project work and do you enjoy bringing people together to find common ground?

Are you detail-oriented, thrive on diverse project work, and enjoy bringing people together to find common ground?

WildSafeBC is the provincial leader in preventing conflict with wildlife through collaboration, education and community solutions. The WildSafeBC message "keeping wildlife wild and communities safe" emphasizes the important role humans play in reducing our impact on wildlife and increasing community safety. Our work focuses on actions we can take to avoid attracting wildlife into our communities, raising awareness of human-wildlife conflict issues and seeking solutions to reduce conflict and increase public safety.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The WildSafeBC Community Coordinator position is a unique opportunity to make a difference in reducing human-wildlife conflicts where you live. Professionalism, good communication and community engagement skills are essential for this position as well as an ability to work independently with minimal supervision.

Community Coordinators will attend group training sessions to learn WildSafeBC conflict-reduction information relating to BC wildlife species, and effective engagement and delivery techniques, which they can bring into their communities.
